

Yusen Logistics Recognised in the 2021 Gartner Magic Quadrant for Third-Party Logistics Worldwide

Yusen Logistics has been recognized as a Niche Player, for the fourth time, by Gartner in the Magic Quadrant for Third-Party Logistics (3PL) Worldwide report. This year, the Group is positioned with the furthest on the completeness of vision axis and highest on the ability to execute axis in the Niche Player category.

“This is a recognition of the efforts and achievements Yusen Logistics has made in creating an end-to-end supply chain for our customers. It showcases our capabilities as a one-stop-shop for logistics supply chain and what we are striving to improve,” said Kaori Nagamizo, Chief Business Development Officer, Yusen Logistics. “The business landscape is rapidly transforming. We will continue to expand our global network to increase the flexibility and agility of our logistics supply chain,”

“Every business is unique so there’s no one-size-fits-all solution. We are committed to creating innovative, tailor-made logistics solutions for our customers,” Nagamizo added.

Gartner annual Magic Quadrant report evaluates the capabilities and services of global 3PL service providers, bringing insights to supply chain leaders in logistics fields to support the selection and appointment of global 3PL partners.

Gartner, ‘Magic Quadrant for Third-Party Logistics, Worldwide’, Susan Boylan, David Gonzalez, Farrah Salim, Brian Whitlock, Chris Kina, June 28, 2021

Gartner does not endorse any vendor, product or service depicted in its research publications, and does not advise technology users to select only those vendors with the highest ratings or other designation. Gartner research publications consist of the opinions of Gartner’s research organization and should not be construed as statements of fact. Gartner disclaims all warranties, expressed or implied, with respect to this research, including any warranties of merchantability or fitness for a particular purpose.